FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION

File Code: 1230

OTHER SCHOOL-CONNECTED ORGANIZATIONS

The board will encourage the work of a general, voluntary, school-connected organization of parents/guardians, school staff, and friends of the school.

Such an organization shall have as its primary objectives the promotion of student welfare and the development of close relationships between the home, the staff, the students and the community.

The organization may not:

- a. establish educational policy;
- b. participate in the administration of the school;
- c. authorize management and direction of school affairs;
- d. use the district's name in its title without the express consent of the board. (Permission to use the district's name does not constitute permission to act as the district's representative.)

Permission to hold regular meetings in school facilities will be granted by the board for a particular school year, in accordance with Policy 1330.

The chief school administrator shall designate a staff member to serve as an advisor to the organization. All members of the staff and the board shall be encouraged to join the organization and to participate in its activities.
